

The following explains the terms and numbers used in the chart showing what SB231 would mean for school districts across Illinois.

The Numbers:

The attached simulation was created by the Illinois State Board of Education and provides an illustration of the impact of SB 231 on a district-by-district level. It does this using data from Fiscal Year 2015, which is the most recent year for which complete data is available. Essentially, the model compares what districts received in FY 15 to what districts would have received if SB 231 had been law in FY 15.

Because the model uses FY 15 data, it also uses FY 15 funding levels. This means that the model does not account for an increase of $195 million to General State Aid for schools in the current, Fiscal Year 16 education budget.

The 2015 Fiscal Year budget numbers offer a financial baseline. The Office of the Illinois Senate President has asked the Illinois State Board of Education for an updated projection based on the governor's requested funding for schools. That projection is not yet available.

What Does the Model Show

The model, which is sorted by county, includes the following information:

2015 State Budget: The sum each district received in FY 15 for General State Aid, Special Education Services, Special Education Personnel Reimbursement, Bilingual Education, and Summer School for Special Education Students. These are currently separate line items in the ISBE budget, and districts are reimbursed based on prior year costs.

SB 231: The amount each district would have received in Primary State Aid in FY 15 if SB 231 had been law. The separate line items mentioned above would be rolled into a school aid formula and distributed based on local needs. The SB 231 total also includes "hold harmless" provisions to ensure no district loses money.

Difference: How much more or less a district would have received in FY 15 if the proposed SB 231 had been implemented in FY 15. Hold harmless provisions in SB 231 ensure that no district loses state funding next year.
